

Waiting for Lefty

Written by Clifford Odets

Directed by Tom Alera

One of the most celebrated and significant plays of the modern American theatre. Set in the Depression era, and dealing with the cynical exploitation of the working class, "Waiting for Lefty" presents a series of powerful and moving episodes about discouraged and disgruntled workers who overcome fear and corruption to fight for a better life. The play, inspired by the 1934 Taxi Strike, was first presented by the famous Group Theatre in New York City, and became both a symbol of its times and a beacon for many famous playwrights and actors who came under its influence. A play known as "the birth cry of the thirties" and a play not to be missed!

Also appearing will be: Emily Arnold, Megan Carmody, Juliana Fiore, Jillian Greenspan, Andy Hamilton, Channing Moreland, Meredith Murphy, Emily Polanowicz, Bryan Scott, and Christine Sgueglia.
