

Trivedi Advanced Technologies

ASSEMBLY TECHNICIAN

Must be permanent resident /US citizen

$15-$17 Per Hour – full time, 8 hours per day

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Assemble subassemblies and final assemblies per written specifications i.e., work instructions, customer drawings, etc.
- Complete manufacturing documentation as outlined in the work order package and defined by the customer.
- Package final product per written specifications.
- Identify and report any product quality problems or discrepancies.
- Document non-conformances.
- Preferred ISO13485 requirements.
- Maintain the work area and equipment in a clean and orderly condition and follow prescribed safety regulations.
- Maintain proper control of device traceability materials and non-conforming material.

ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS

- Positive attitude, self motivator.
- Superior customer service attitude.
- Excellent teamwork and communication skills.
- High School Diploma or equivalent.
- Experience in basic manufacturing methods.
- Must be able to read, write, and comprehend detailed manufacturing procedures and drawings in English.
- A demonstrated commitment to company values.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

- Excellent manual dexterity and eye/hand coordination
- Ability to climb stairs
- Standing for prolonged periods of time
- Sitting for prolonged periods of time
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs

PREFERRED SKILLS

- Electro-mechanical assembly
- Opto-mechanical assembly
- Use of epoxy and dispensing tools

To apply, email Shivani Raval at shivani@trivedi.io

IoT/loE – Trivedi Advanced Technologies

Internet-of-Things IoT is our present focus area. Several systems for Environmental monitoring and Healthcare related are currently under development at TAT. We have engineering expertise and experience to develop systems that turn raw device data into useful, meaningful, actionable data. By helping our customers to unlock their data, they can lower their costs, improve www.trivediat.com