Historical Commission

The Historical Commission wants to hear from you! A project is currently in the works to keep the memories of Southborough alive. We are looking for participants who are willing to answer a few questions about the changes you've seen while living here. You will be asked 5 to 8 questions consisting of the changes you've seen, childhood memories, and funny stories around town. So, if you are a lifelong resident or someone who has lived in town for a substantial amount of time and willing to be filmed, your stories are an invaluable part of our history and we want to hear them!! If you want to share but are too shy for film, we are also looking for photographs from around town that are 40 years or older – as we are pursuing a "before and after" photo collection (all photos will be returned, of course). Whether it be in front of a building, at a building that no longer exists, or places that building now stand, we would love to see what you have!

For more details, you are encouraged to call Kelly O'Brien at 602-710-0488 or email her at kobrien@southboroughma.com.

As I prepare to retire at the end of June, I wanted to take this moment to say the last 27 years serving the seniors of Southborough as Outreach Coordinator have been an honor. Back in 1998, I walked into the Senior Center in the Fayville Village Hall, with my now 30yr old on my hip, to deliver my resume. Originally hired for 8 hours a week, the position grew as did the Senior Center. I have had the privilege of meeting some of the finest, most notable citizens of this town. I've been welcomed into many homes and regaled with stories of the last 100 years. Those are the same people who made this town such a desirable town to live in. I hope that you will all welcome the next Outreach Coordinator with as much warmth and acceptance as I received. I will miss my work with all of you and this town. However, I am enthusiastically moving on to the next exciting chapter of my life.

With great fondness and much gratitude,

Cindy Beard
